A Dramatic Reading of Scenes from

A STREETCAR NAMED DESIRE by TENNESSEE WILLIAMS

The Domestic Violence project is an innovative public health initiative that presents dramatic readings by professional actors from A Streetcar Named Desire as a catalyst for town hall discussions about the impact of domestic violence on individuals, couples, children, caregivers, and communities. The goal of the project is to create a safe space for dialogue about abusive and manipulative behaviors, power struggles and violence, the lasting impact of experiencing or witnessing violence in one’s home, and the role of support systems in these circumstances.
